

How to File Claims

IRS guidelines require specific documentation to substantiate each claim submission. The following chart provides an easy description of how to file claims and the type of documentation that is acceptable. Also included is a description of documentation that is not acceptable.

If Covered By Insurance	It is recommended that you submit to your insurance carrier first and obtain the insurance explanation of benefits (EOB) as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Have the provider submit claim to insurance payer first. 2. Insurance payer will send you an Explanation of Benefits (EOB) showing the amount you owe. 3. Complete FSA claim form and include EOB to claim the amount you owe after insurance has paid. ★ Hint: You can register at your insurance carrier's website to view your account and obtain the EOB.
Prescriptions	Complete FSA claim form and include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pharmacy script or mail order statement showing patient name, name of drug/Rx item, date filled, dollar amount; or, • Itemized printout of prescription from pharmacy. ★ Hint: You may be able to register at your pharmacy website to view your account and obtain an itemized list of prescriptions.

If Not Covered By Insurance	Complete FSA claim form and include an itemized statement clearly showing: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Provider name/address, 2. Date service was provided (not the date you paid for the service), 3. Patient name, 4. Description of service (eye exam, x-ray, crown); and, 5. Dollar amount you owe (regardless if paid). ★ Hint: Your health care provider may not automatically provide an itemized statement, so you may need to ask for it.
Orthodontia	Requests may be reimbursed for a reasonable monthly payment on or after the payment is due and paid. The payment must be a reasonable approximation of the value of each month's service. You may only file claims for orthodontic payments while treatment is in process. You must submit a paid receipt from your orthodontist or a photocopy of the monthly coupon and your check. Pre-payments are not allowed. You must submit a written statement from the orthodontist showing the charge for the initial installation work, when it was completed and a paid receipt to claim an initial down payment or appliance fee.
Dependent Care (Work-related Child or Elder Daycare)	Complete FSA claim form and include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provider signature on the claim form; OR, • Itemized statement from provider showing: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Provider name/address, 2. Date the child/elder care services was provided, ➔ Note: Do not submit for services that have not yet been provided or future dates of service. Submit for a full month after the month has ended or submit for the previous week's expenses. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 3. Name of dependent for whom the care was provided, 4. Type of service (daycare, day camp, preschool, after-school care, etc.); and, 5. Dollar amount you owe. ★ Hint: Save time and paper by having your dependent care provider sign the claim form to certify the care was provided!
	IRS rules are strict. Examples of unacceptable claim documentation are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cancelled checks • Credit card receipts • Statements that are not itemized and say "balance forward" or "previous balance due" or "paid on account" • Statements for service that has not yet been provided, i.e., future dates of service • Pre-treatment estimates of services to be provided in the future • Statements that do not include the date service was provided • Statements that do not include the description of service • Statements that do not include the provider name, patient name and dollar amount you owe ★ Hint: Just follow the guidelines above to ensure your claim is processed as quickly as possible.

I certify that all expenses for which reimbursement or payment is claimed by submission of this form were incurred by me, an eligible spouse, or an eligible dependent during a period while I was covered under my employer's FSA Plan and that the expenses have not been reimbursed and reimbursement will not be sought from any other source. Any claimed Dependent Care expenses are work-related and were provided for my dependent under the age of 13 or for my dependent who is incapable of self care. I understand that I am fully responsible for the accuracy of all information relating to this claim, and that unless an expense for which reimbursement is claimed is a proper expense under the Plan, I may be liable for payment of all related taxes including federal, state, or local income tax on amounts paid from the Plan which relate to such expense. A claim will only be processed with a completed and signed claim form and correct documentation.
